

Homes for Our Troops

Key Ceremony

SPC Roberto Reyes

Pennsylvania

KEY CEREMONY DETAILS:

Date: Saturday, January 30th, 2016

Time: Registration begins at 9:30am, Ceremony begins at 10:00am

Location: 70 Deer Run Road, Hawley, PA 18428

Please join Homes for Our Troops as we present the keys to Army Specialist Roberto Reyes Jr.'s specially adapted home in Hawley, PA.

The program will begin promptly at 10:00am on January 30th.

Please arrive early to check in at our registration table and greet the Reyes family.

If you have any questions or would like to become involved in this event, please contact Community Outreach Coordinator, Brianne McNamara at bmcnamara@hfotusa.org

Thanks to the dedication and generosity of people like you, SPC Roberto Reyes and his family will receive the keys to their new specially adapted home!

www.hfotusa.org/Reyes

On January 26, 2005 during his second deployment while moving with A Company, 1-8 CAV, 1st Cavalry Division in Baghdad, Army SPC Roberto (Robert) Reyes Jr. was ejected 20-feet in the air from his vehicle after it was struck by an improvised explosive device (IED). The impact of his fall and shrapnel embedded in his head from the explosion resulted in severe traumatic brain injury (TBI) and partial paralysis.